SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, October 9.

N the Summons of Reduction and Declarator raised at the Instance of the Lord Provost and Magistrates, it is craved, inter alia, That it may be found, by Sentence of the Lords of Session, that the Magistrates have the undoubted Right of presenting Ministers to the Churches built or to be built within the City; That, after they are received Ministers, they are the only undoubted Right to appoint them in such particular Kirks of the City as they think expedient: That they have Power to change from one Kirk to another, from Time to Time, for the Good and Peace of the City shall require: That the Rev. Presbytery, after they have received them as Ministers of the City, are functi; and the Ministers so admitted, have no Right to any other, unless they continue to preach in such a particular Church as the Magistrates shall appoint: That the Magistrates have undoubted Right to create or diminish the Number of Congregations in the City, as to them shall appear convenient: Also, they have undoubted Power and Authority to Collocate Charges to single Charges, and to alter the Stipend from 2500 Merks to 2000 Merks, in Circumstances of the City so require. And we all the Ministers and Elders of the City are to be bound with a Copy of the said Summons.

The Profit of the Whale lately cast ashore at Crunear Peterhead, becomes the undisputed Property of the Right Hon. the Countess of Errol. We have the following Relation from a Sea Port near Humber; a young Ship-master, lately married before the Honey-moon was over, had the Misfortune one Afternoon to find his Wife desperately ill, and while he ran to call Assistance, she brought forth a Child, but willing to conceal the Matter from her Husband, she wrapp'd it in a Bundle of Cloathes, secured it in a large Trunk; the Matrons immediately perceived her Circumstances, and having searched, found the Child almost stifled. The poor Mother has got out of his fond Fit, and taken again to his Ship.

We hear from all Corners, that the late violent and bad Weather has done incredible Damage to the Farmers, vast Quantities of Corn being thereby lost and spoiled.

Yesterday the Sacrament was administer'd at Edinburgh, on which Occasion many thousands resorted thither, and, amongst the rest, a good old woman, near Four-score, who was so zealous, notwithstanding her Age and Infirmary, to travel from a great way to hear the Word, for it seems she imagines it is confin'd to the Mouths of the succeeding Generation.

The designed Reparations of Haddo's-hold Kirk finished last Week, the Doors were opened on Monday, and the Rev. Mr. Wallace, in the Afternoon, preached, to a very numerous Audience, from Luke 23.

Edinburgh, Oct. 10. Yesterday the Council of the Hospital made Choice of Mr. David Flint, Secretary to the Trustees for improving Fisheries and Manufactures, to be Treasurer to that Hospital, in place of Mr. Thomas Heriot, late Dean of Guild of the City, who has resigned.

This being the Birth-day of his Grace the Duke of York, the same will be observed at Duddingstoun with uncommon Respect; and indeed every Briton should honour a Day that gave Birth to such a distinguished Friend of Liberty, whose Courage and Wisdom has so often shined in its Defence, both in the Camp and Council.

A Leith Officer, who, it seems, was always remarkably fond of Trade, happened last Week to come on a Man who lived in another Privilege, but he fairly caught a Tartar, for a Constable was immediately called, who thought fit to apprehend the Officer for transgressing his Bounds, and committed him to Gaol.

IRELAND.

Dublin, Oct. 10. On Saturday last Mr. Eatmah, a Farmer in Racool, was robbed by three Fellows near the said Place, of his Cloaths, and 45 l. On Sunday Evening his Servant met one of the Rogues on George's Quay with his Master's Cloaths on, and had him taken up and committed to Newgate.

On Saturday Morning last died Mrs. Morgan, Wife of Marcus Anthony Morgan, Esq; of Stephen's Green.

Same Day died Captain Aubigny Parker, of the County of Longford.

The same Day Dr. Henry Cope, State Physician, was chose Professor of Physick of our University, in the room of Dr. Richard Hefham, deceased.

Yesterday at the Quarter Sessions held at the Tholsel, Edward Reilly was found Guilty of a Street Robbery, and an Assault on Catherine Egan, and sentenced to be executed on Saturday the 21st of October.

The same Day Jane Price, alias Bungy Clark, was found guilty of keeping a Bawdy-house, and ordered to be publicly whipp'd on Saturday next.

Last Sunday was Fortnight, the Right Hon. the Lord Blayney entered into Holy Orders. His Lordship was ordained by the Right Rev. Dr. Sterne, Lord Bishop of Clougher at Clougher. It is remarkable, that since his Lordship hath been ordained, the Church of Castleblanay hath been crowded with Dissenters of all Denominations.

The Corporal of the Company at Roscrea, who endeavoured to prevent Lieutenant Hume from being murder'd in the Inn, received a Stab in his Belly, of which Wound he died last Tuesday.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Exon, Oct. 13. On Tuesday died Sir George Chudleigh of Ashton, Bart. one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Devon. As he has left several Daughters, and no Male Heir, 'tis believed the Son of the late Colonel Chudleigh, formerly Governor of Chelsea Hospital, will come in for a great Share of his Estate, besides the Title; especially if it be true, that a Treaty of Marriage is on Foot between that young Gentleman and the Deceased's eldest Daughter.

Bristol, Oct. 14. On Tuesday last a great Body of Colliers went to 'Squire Chester's, enter'd his Kitchen, and took from the Fire a fine large Piece of Beef that was then roasting, together with the Spit, and carried it into the open Field, where they devoured all but the Spit, and then retired without washing it down.

They have visited several other Gentlemen who have also large Concerns in the Coal-works, and by threatening to fill up their Pits, have extorted from them divers Sums of Money.

The City being now in perfect Peace, and the Colliers returned to their Duty, the supernumerary Constables of the City are now discharged.

We hear from Bath, that the Colliers have appear'd about those Parts; but we hear of no extraordinary Exploit, except extorting a Piece or two of Gold from 'Squire Harrington of Corston.

Monday last two Men who were at work on a Ladder erected like a Scaffolding, in putting on the Roof of Mr. Fry's House on St. Philip's Plain, fell from thence by the breaking of the Ladder in two, occasioned by their working together too near the Centre; by which Accident one broke his Leg in such a Manner, that both Femurs came through the Muscles three or four Inches, and stuck in the Earth; and the other had a compound Fracture in the Arm. Both were immediately carried to Maudlin Infirmary.

Worcester, Oct. 13. We hear from Chester, that notwithstanding the great Quantity of Hops that were at that Fair, yet most or all were sold from 1 l. 10 s. to 4 l. 10 s. per Hundred.

Last Saturday one Morgan and Godfrey Wheeler were committed, for breaking the Night before into the Shop of Mr. Stone, a Gingerbread Baker of this City, and taking away what Money they could find out of the Drawers, which was about 40 s. in Silver and Copper, Part whereof was found concealed in Wheeler's Shoes when he was apprehended: The said Wheeler was tried for a Burglary the last Lent Affizes, and acquitted for want of sufficient Evidence appearing against him.

It seems they were Servants formerly to the said Mr. Stone.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the King's Coronation, the same was observed as usual.

Last Saturday new Hops sold in our Market (which was a very great one) from 1 l. 10 s. to 3 l. 15 s. and some very fine to 4 l. a Hundred.

Norwich, Oct. 14. Last Tuesday Morning a Grazier in Wymondham, was found hang'd in his own House.

The same Night a Person was set upon between Harleston and Yarmouth by two Foot Pads, who bid him stand and deliver; but he clapping Spurs to his Mare, got from them: One of them shot at him, and the Bullet went through the Sleeve of his Coat; and the other shot at his Mare, which graz'd near her Ear, and frighten'd her so much, that she ran above two Miles before he could take her up, by which Means he got clear off.

Last Wednesday being his Majesty's Coronation, the same was observed here with great Demonstrations of Joy. The Right Worshipful Mr. Mayor and Court went to the Cathedral in their Formalities, and heard an excellent and loyal Sermon, preached by the Rev. Mr. Smith. In the Afternoon the Dragoons quarter'd here appeared under Arms with their Officers at their Head; they were all in new Cloaths, made a fine Appearance, and marched into the Market-place, where a large Bonfire was provided; the Right Worshipful Mr. Mayor and Court being there, drank the King's, Royal Family's, Sir Robert Walpole's, and other Loyal Healths; after which Mr. Mayor invited the Officers up to the Hall to do the same: The Soldiers fired several Volleys in the Market-place; there was a great many fine Fireworks play'd off while the Court was at the Bonfire, and the Soldiers had Money given them to drink his Majesty's Health; and the Whole was concluded with Unanimity and sincere Satisfaction.

Colchester, Oct. 13. On Monday last about Noon, the Right Worshipful Joseph Duffield, Esq; Mayor, was met by his Brethren the Aldermen, Assistants, and Common-Council-Men, at the Moot-Hall, from whence they proceeded in a regular and grand Manner, in their Formalities, attended with the Town Musick, and proclaimed St. Dennis's Fair, and were afterwards elegantly entertain'd at the Three Cups.

The same Day the Quarter Sessions for this Town was held at the Moot-Hall, before the Mayor, Recorder, &c. when Joseph Harrison, senior, was indicted for defrauding his Matter of a certain Quantity of Wool, and being found guilty, was ordered to be whipp'd.

On Tuesday last died of the Small Pox, at his Seat call'd Olivers in Stanway Parish, John Eldred, Esq; a young Gentleman of a plentiful Fortune in this County.

On Wednesday being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, the same was observed here as usual, with ringing of Bells; and the Evening concluded with Bonfires, and other Tokens of Joy.

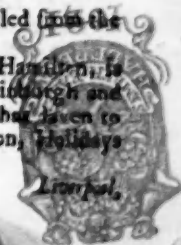

Canterbury, Oct. 14. Wednesday last being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, the Morning was usher'd in here with ringing of Bells. In the Evening the Right Worshipful the Mayor, with the Aldermen his Brethren, and the Common Councilmen of this City, met at the King's-Head, where several Gentlemen were invited, with the Officers of the Soldiers, and drank his Majesty's Health, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family: the Soldiers being drawn up under the Windows, and firing several Volleys upon the same Occasion. The Evening was concluded with ringing of Bells, Bonfires, &c.

To the Right Honourable the Earl of ORRERY, on his Marriage with Miss HAMILTON; and their Arrival at Marlton House, Somersetshire.

YE Powers of Harmony assist the Song,
Sacred to you connubial Joys belong,
Love's generous Passion, and the Muse's Flame
Cement divine! compose the godlike Frame,
As Nature's self immortal is the tie,
They spring together, and together die.

Thus you, my Lord! who long have sat sublime
The Muses Guest, on Pindus' flow'ry Clime,
Whose Brow poetick Wreaths have long embrac'd,
Art now afresh with nuptial Garlands grac'd.
No Spoils fantastic from the Paphian Grove,
But chaste, and fadeless Greens of virtuous Love.
No Flame impure with wild despoil'd Sway,
Kindled your Bosom with unhallow'd Ray.
Unbridled Passions, like a blaze of Fire,
Soon vent their Fury, and in smoke expire.
But calm, and constant as a Vestal Light,
Love fix'd on Friendship, burns for ever bright.

Happy the Peer to win so fair a Bride!
Happy the Nymph to such a Peer ally'd!
Sure there's a secret Sympathy in Souls,
Strong as the fam'd Attraction of the Poles,
Which leads the Lovers with magnetick Force,
Governs the Passions, and directs their Course.
Thro' Life's dim Curtain sheds the silent Ray,
And to the destin'd Union points the Way.
She must be all that Fancy can require,
To reign the Object of a Boy's Desire,

All Charms, all Love, must in her Bosom dwell,
To conquer him who knew all Charms so well.

See from Hibernia's Shore th' illustrious Pair,
Divide the Billows, conscious of their Care.
See, round the Ship Celulean Tritons play,
And tutelary Nereids smooth the Way,
While Amphitrite keeps her coral Court,
And on the Surface bounding Dolphins sport.
The Muses too, convoy their Charge along,
With how'ring Wings, and hymeneal Song.
With you, my Lord, th' harmonious Choir withdrew,
And still from Clime to Clime, your Steps pursue.
While some with proud Reins sweep the Plain,
Pierian Guardians mingle in your Train;
Still the divine Companions of your Flight,
On Israel waited thus the trav'ling Light.

Welcome blest Pair! to your triumphant Seat,
Which silent long had mourn'd her Lord's Retreat;
Whose lonely Walks in deeper Shadows clad,
And Towers forlorn, look'd desolate and sad;
Long had the tuneful Swains their Lyres forgot,
And pensive Pan long slumber'd in his Grot.
Long had immortal Tomes unheeded slept,
And dewy Walls in Tears his Absence wept.
But now each Scene a cheerful Face assumes,
The Fields rejoice, and all Creation blooms;
Safe in your Arms a Paradise you bring,
She glads the Meads, and when she smiles, 'tis Spring.
Again the sickly Flowers begin to rise,
And spread new Fragrance in autumnal Skies.

Long may her Presence cheer the happy Grove,
And long diffuse the Pledges of your Love;
While other Boyes, if right the Muse presage,
Transmit the Blessing to the latest Age.

From, Oct. 5, 1738.

L O N D O N

By the last French Mail came Advice, that the Cardinal de Fleury continues on the mending Hand; that he receives Visits every Day from great Men; and that about ten Days ago the Duke of Orleans called to see him as he returned to Paris from Fontenbleau.

The Paris A-la-main mentions Advice from Belgrade, that Prince Ragotski still cuts a grand Figure in the Vizier's Army, having 200 Men in his Retinue for his Guard, and a great Number of Gentlemen clothed like him in the Hungarian Dress, and that the Infidels give him the Title of King.

It contains the following Advice from Genoa, dated the 21st ult. O. S.

We have received Letters of the 16th ult. O. S. from Bastia, which say, that the bad Weather at Sea, had hinder'd their having any certain Intelligence relating to the Baron de Neuhoft; that however the Republick had an Express from the Marquis Mari, Governor of Bastia, with an Account of the Arrival of that Fortune-hunter, who was for 5 Days off and on at Porto Vecchio, where he had used his utmost Efforts to take it, but was obliged, by the Cannon of 3 Gallies in the Gulph, to shear off; and whether he went aboard again is not known, or whether he surrender'd himself into the Hands of the Rebels, who, after having got what they can out of him, will not fail to play him a slippery Trick; for which Reason he had demanded 4 Hostages of them for the Security of his Person; tho' 'tis much doubted whether they would comply. Mean time they add, that the Count de Boisseaux, the General of the French Troops in that Island, had dispatched circular Letters to all the chief Men there, forbidding them, on pain of incurring the King's Displeasure, to shew any Regard to the Proposals made by the said Fortune-hunter: 'Tis not doubted, but the wisest of them, and those who live on this Side of the Mountains, and are therefore most exposed, will continue steadfast to their present Attachment; but 'tis apprehended that the others, who are always the most mutinous, will waver; and the Republick has sent a Courier to their Envoy at the French Court to inform them of this Event: Many People think 'tis no more than a Flash of Fire, which will only serve to shew who are the Disaffected, being persuaded that no Power has a Share in this Arment, and that it has been only fitted out by the Jews of Amsterdam, in hopes, that as Oil is very plentiful in that Island, they shall make a considerable Profit, by carrying off several Cargoes of it from the Island at a very cheap Rate, in Exchange for their Ammunition.

Extract of a Letter from Bristol, dated Oct. 14.

By the Ship Sea-horse, Capt. Griffiths, who arrived here last Night from Antigua, which Place she left the 19th of August last, we have Advice, that the Day preceding they had a violent Storm or Hurricane; it began about Eight in the Morning, and lasted till Nine at Night; the Wind at Antigua, but as this Ship sailed the next Day, he can't be particular. Amongst the unfortunates are the written. The Day after Capt. Griffiths left the the Wind blew very strong at South.

The John, Pipon, fully laden for London, without the Bar; the Capt. and Crew saved. Also the Mercury, Toomes, and the Betty, Sprout, and for London; the Ruth, Mettings, of the Sloop Two Betrys, Reat, of Liverpool; Sarah, Phenix, of New York; Loyal Drummond, and the Mary and Rebecca, Antigua.

We hear that the Report of the Malice condemn'd at the two last Sessions at the Bailey, and now under Sentence of Death in the gate, will be made to his Majesty in Council by Serjeant Uring, Deputy Recorder, on Thursday next.

On Thursday next the four Troops of Horse two Troops of Grenadier Guards will be mustered in Hyde Park by George Huxley, Esq; Com-missary General.

And on Friday and Saturday the three Regiments of Foot Guards will be mustered by the Commissary in St. James's Park.

PARALYTICON, seu Anima Nervorum
A Suspendious Caymical Essence which refines
the Palsy, and all other Nervous Diseases.

THE very first DOSE of it (a DROPS only) instantly penetrates the inner cesses of the minutest Nerves, and darting almost Lightning thro' the whole Human System, affords Warmth and genial Comfort to the weakened Limbs and Parts of the Body, and affords immediate relief to the most obstinate Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects, as Trembling, Numbness, Deadness, and Weakness, &c.
universal, or of particular Parts only, or whether lately traced, or of many Years Continuance.

And as the very first Dose makes an apparent, sensible Amendment, so the continuing of it for a short Time surely accomplishes a perfect Cure, not only of the most vicious Palsy or Resolusion of the Nerves, but also of Cramp-like Contractions, Shrinking of the Sinews, and other Nervous Complaints whatever, and that in Persons either Sex, or of any Age, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Livings, hard Drinking, long Courses of sick, great Colds, or excessive Fatigue, either of the Body.

Words cannot sufficiently express the uncommon, and parallel'd Efficacy of this great Medicine, as all who frankly acknowledge; but its vastly superior Excellency other Remedies, may be more fully rel'd on, from its fallible Cure of the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects, Nervous Indispositions, than the celebrated Cortex of termittents, and this many Hundreds have experienced.

It rectifies all Disorders of the first Passages, creates petite, procures a good Digestion, enriches the Blood, the natural Vigour and steady Use of the Limbs, and the interceded Joints, Muscles, Tendons, Ligaments, &c.
Habit to an immense Degree.

It is also very pleasant to take; is comforting and the Stomach and Bowels, and for Safety might be given to youngest Infant. It is to be had only by the Author's pointment at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Role and against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.
